Nursery Rhymes, Songs, Poems & Activities

Stop, look and listen, before you cross the street.
First use your eyes and ears. Then use your feet!

Step on the corner and watch for the light.
Look to the left, then look to the right.
If nothing is coming, then start
and don't talk.
Go straight across, be careful and walk.

I have a turkey, big and fat.
He spreads his wings, (fan hands at hips) and walks like that (strut around)
His daily corn he would not miss (pretend to eat corn)
And when he talks, he sounds like this (gobble, gobble, gobble).

This is Dr. Bell, who keeps us well.
This is Nurse Rick, who cares for the sick.
This is Dr. Heath, who cares
for our teeth.
This is postman Dale, who delivers our mail.
This one here – hey that's me!
We all work together for our community.

Tune: London Bridges I've got three corners and three sides, see my sides with your eyes. I've got three corners and three sides. I'm a triangle
